SWEARING-IN CEREMONY OF COUNCIL OF DOLLARD-DES-ORMEAUX

Dollard-des-Ormeaux, November 15, 2021 – The city of Dollard-des-Ormeaux held the swearing-in ceremony of the newly elected Council on November 14 at the Banquet Hall of the Community Center, followed by a sit-down cocktail attended by their friends and family.

Due to governmental sanitary measures, only a small number of guests were permitted to attend. However, Mayor Alex Bottausci shared a Facebook Live feed of the entire ceremony in order to make the event accessible to all residents.

Sophie Valois, the City Clerk, swore in councillors Laurence Parent (District 1), Errol Johnson (District 2), Mickey Max Guttman (District 3), Tanya Toledano (District 4), Morris Vesely (District 5) Valérie Assouline (District 6), Ryan Brownstein (District 7), and Anastasia Assimakopoulos (District 8), as well as Mayor Alex Bottausci. Together, they form the Council of the city of Dollard-des-Ormeaux.

In his speech, Mayor Bottausci congratulated the newly elected team of councillors: “After weeks and months of knocking on doors and speaking to residents about issues that are important to them, it is now time to work together in their best interests. I am confident that together, we will accomplish great things for our incredible city.”

Mayor Bottausci also expressed that “Moving forward with a renewed Council, the challenges of planning within a post-pandemic reality must be addressed immediately in order to continue pursuing strategic, ambitious and innovative projects which reflect the growing needs of our community!”
