

Preserving the quality of life of Dollard-des-Ormeaux

The new Urban Planning Program and Zoning By-law now in application

Dollard-des-Ormeaux, May 28, 2025 – The City of Dollard-des-Ormeaux is pleased to announce the completion of the review process for its Urban Planning Program and Zoning By-law. The final stages of adoption and compliance were completed in the last few days.

This comprehensive review of the by-laws dating back 40 years was launched in 2020. This exhaustive work was made possible by the active participation of the population, partners, municipal officials and employees. Overall, a dozen information and consultation activities were held, involving more than 1,300 people and generating over 300 comments from participants.

“This new regulatory framework gives us the necessary tools to maintain Dollard-des-Ormeaux's attractiveness and quality of life, while at the same time guiding the reasonable redevelopment of our main boulevards. I would like to thank the public for their essential contribution to this inspiring democratic process. The result is regulations that truly embody the residents of Dollard-des-Ormeaux,” said Alex Bottausci, Mayor of Dollard-des-Ormeaux.

The City of Dollard-des-Ormeaux now has a modern planning framework that complies with the Land Use and Development Plan of the Montreal Agglomeration. The Urban Planning Program and the Zoning By-law are now in force and can be consulted on the city's website.

“I acknowledge the dedication of the municipal teams who have worked tirelessly to develop, in collaboration with all the stakeholders, regulations that reflect the values of our city,” concludes Mr. Bottausci.

Contact

Natalia Correa, Division Head – Communications

514 684-9391

ncorrea@ddo.qc.ca

