

Press release
For immediate release

Re-elected Mayor and newly elected Council Members Ready to Serve the Community

Dollard-des-Ormeaux, November 3, 2025 — The City of Dollard-des-Ormeaux is pleased to announce that following yesterday's municipal election, acclaimed Mayor Alex Bottausci and Councillors Errol Johnson (District 2) and Valérie Assouline (District 6) were delighted to be joined by newly elected and re-elected council members Laurence Parent (District 1) Sandy Jesion (District 3), Tanya Toledano (District 4) Morris Vesely (District 5), Pulkit Kantawala (District 7), Anastasia Assimakopoulos (District 8) and newly elected council. This election resulted in the selection of a renewed Council to represent the community's values, vision, and commitment to progress.

Mayor Bottausci expressed gratitude to residents for their continued confidence and support: "It is an honour to serve the residents of Dollard-des-Ormeaux once again. I am deeply thankful for this opportunity to continue working with our residents, local businesses, and community partners to make our city an even better place to live, work, and grow."

The newly elected Council members are:

- Alex Bottausci, Mayor
- Councillor Laurence Parent – District 1
- Councillor Errol Johnson – District 2
- Councillor Sandy Jesion – District 3
- Councillor Tanya Toledano – District 4
- Councillor Morris Vesely – District 5
- Councillor Valérie Assouline – District 6
- Councillor Pulkit Kantawala – District 7
- Councillor Anastasia Assimakopoulos – District 8

The new council will officially be sworn in at the Inaugural Ceremony scheduled November 9th. Members will begin their four-year term immediately following the ceremony.

Mayor Bottausci added: "The Council is united and ready to deliver results. Together, we will champion smart, sustainable growth, enhance the safety and vibrancy of our neighbourhoods, and ensure that Dollard-des-Ormeaux continues to be a place where families thrive and opportunity flourishes."

Contact:

Eftyhia Volakakis
Direction générale
Ville de Dollard-des-Ormeaux
evolakakis@ddo.qc.ca